

ACCREDITED PAYMENTS RISK PROFESSIONAL Certification

WACHA has just announced a NEW Advanced Certification Program

NACHA has announced a NEW advanced certification program called the Accredited Payments Risk Professional (APRP) Certification. The certification esteems itself to identify those individuals who are competent in risk across payment channels at an enterprise level. Be sure to register early for the 2020 APRP exam and training sessions.

The exam will cover the following areas:

- Fundamentals of Payments Risk Management
- Payment Systems
- Payments Risk Policy & Governance
- Payments Risk Management Systems and Controls
- Physical and Information Security
- Regulatory Environment

APRP™

Accredited Payments
Risk Professional

APRP Certification Propels Your Business & Career Forward

Becoming an APRP will help you to advance both your financial institution as well as your career. Having an APRP employee shows examiners that your Financial Institution is committed to risk management and regulatory compliance. As an APRP, you can rest assured that you will rise above the rest by exemplifying that you are committed to your payments-related profession and helping your employer remediate risk.

APRP Prep Series

PAR/WACHA has created a comprehensive APRP Prep Series that includes seven webinars that cover the details one needs to know for the APRP Certification Exam and learn all about payments risk.

W177 N9856 Rivercrest Dr., Suite 105
Germantown, WI 53022
(800) 453-1843
www.WACHA.org